Please read and initial places when indicated below:

_____ I give full permission for my daughter to attend and participate in all camp activities.

_____ I give Holly Pines Day Camp my consent that any photographs, film, audio, or visual images for which she posed may be used by HPDC in whatever way they may desire.

_____ I understand HPDC is not responsible for loss of valuables.

_____ We will read the camp Contract of Behavior and agree to cooperate with all regulations, understanding that if my daughter does not abide by camp rules she may be sent home without a refund.

_____ Included is my non-refundable, non-transferable camp fee, paid in full. I understand that I do not hold a spot in camp or receive camp communication without a completed registration and payment in full.

Contract of Behavior

All Parents, Staff and Campers are required to read and sign the Contract of Behavior to complete their registration.

Three Strike System:

Strike 1: Camper/Staff is sent to the Camp Director for a conversation with another adult present about the undesired behavior. An email will be sent to the parent/guardian.

Strike 2: Same as Strike 1 and the camper will be given a chore to do for camp depending on the age of the camper (ie: sweep HQ, wash dishes from camp cooking). A call will be placed to the parent/guardian.

Strike 3: Same as Strike 1. A call will be placed to the parent/guardian to pick up the Camper/Staff and they will be asked not to return to HPDC. No refund will be issued.

What counts as a strike?

- Any behavior that puts anyone at camp in danger.
- Talking back or disrespecting staff after three warnings.
- Wandering away or not staying with your assigned unit after three warnings.
- Not following directions after three warnings.

There are adult volunteers at camp to comply with Girl Scout ratio, if an adult is disrespected by a camper or camp staff it is an automatic strike.

I, _____ have read the above contract and understand that to keep everyone safe and having fun I must follow the rules and directions given by the HPDC staff. If I do not follow the rules and directions, I understand the consequences.

GSEP High Risk Form for Activities at Holly Pines Day Camp

High risk activities are these that demand greater physical ability, emotional stamina, and skill. These activities may require specialized training, equipment, and supervision. Please see the Safety Activity Checkpoints and Girl Scouts of Eastern Pennsylvania High Risk Activity List for requirements when participating in a high risk activity. When participating in any high risk activity, all registered Girl Scouts must have a signed High Risk Activity Permission Form and a current Health History Form. This form may be used instead of a Parent Permission for Troop Activity form when applicable.
